WASHINGTON COUNTY CONGRESSMAN SUES FOR LIBEL

Claims That Washington Record Injured His Character in the Recent Campaign.

E. F. Acheson, the Republican congressman in Washington county has entered suit against the Washington Record, one of the newspapers that opposed him in the recent campaign, for slander. The Record fought him hard and he claims said nasty things about him and in order that he may preserve his good name he has brought the suit. He said:

"I regret the necessity of bringing this prosecution, but in justice to my reputation could do nothing else. The charges complained of are utterly false and malicious. If such publications are allowed to continue the time will soon come when a decent man will permit his name to be used as a candidate." These actions were begun on election day so that it might not be said they were filed to influence the result of the election on the one hand as were the result of disappointment if Mr. Acheson should be defeated on the other.

A civil suit for libel was also filed by Barker, McIlvaine & Clark, attorneys for Mr. Acheson, against the same defendants for $25,000 damages. No statement was filed with the suit but it is understood that it is based upon the same facts as Acheson's suit.

Mail Carrier Disappears

A detail of Troop A, state police, has been in the search for Alden Painter, a rural mail carrier out of Irwin, who disappeared mysteriously on Monday. Painter's horse and buggy was found tied to a tree close to his home. The mail was intact. It is believed Painter met with foul play.

CHARGED WITH MISDEMEANOR

George Popp, a Rostraver Township Farmer, Gharged With Selling Diseased Swine

A case of unusual interest will be tried before Squire A. N. Shuster of this city November 14, in which George Popp, a Rostraver township farmer is charged with having disposed of diseased hogs at public outcry.

Harry Ross, one of the purchasers at the sale, has made the charge and will prosecute the case. It seems that Popp was the owner of 40 head of hogs and advertised them at public sale. Ross was one of the bidders and bought several head of the swine, all of which he claims died from cholera shortly after the sale.

In his information Ross sets forth that fourteen of the hogs died while the property of Popp before the sale, and that the remaining twenty-six were diseased and that Popp was conscious that the disease existed in his herd on the date of the sale. Others who purchased also lost and they have been subpeoned as witnesses to testify in Ross' favor. The case is a peculiar one and will be fought to a finish as it involves considerable of a row.

GET ADVANCE IN WAGES.

Pennsylvania Employes East of Pittsburg Get 10 Per Cent Additional.

Anent the Republican victory which swept the country Tuesday to demonstrate that Roosevelt policies will be continued. The Board of Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. at a special meeting ordered an advance of 10 per cent in the wages of all permanent employes of the company now receiving less than $200 a month. The increase takes effect December 1, 1906, and applies to the lines east of Pittsburg. The lines West will also receive the increase, however, as an order to this effect will be issued in a day or two. About 10,000 men in what is known as the Pittsburg district will receive the benefit of the increase.

On the Pennsylvania Lines East and West of Pittsburg a total of 179,458 men are employed. Of these, on the lines east, the wages of 125,440 men will be affected, the total increase amounting to $702,952 per month, or $8,435,424 a year. These same classes of employes received an increase of 10 per cent in 1902, so that the present plan will be equivalent to a total increase of 20 per cent over the rates paid in September 1902.

In addition the Pennsylvania railroad on October 1 of this year made readjustment of the salaries of certain classes of employes, numbering 1,058, amounting to $30,733 a month, or $368,796 a year.

Republicans Will Control Lower House.

Returns from every county in the state except Allegheny on the legislative ticket show that the next house of representatives (Allegheny, with 24 members omitted) will contain 124 Republicans, 54 Democrats, four Lincoln and City Party and one Union Labor. It is probable the Republicans elected all or nearly all of their members in Allegheny county.

BOYD BLOOM MARRIED

Tuesday, at Home of Bride's Parents in Punxsutawney.—Sudden Death of Brother Caused Sorrow instead of Joy

Mr. A. Boyd Bloom of Monessen, was united in marriage to Miss Myrtle McCreight, of Punxsutawney, at the home of the bride's parents Tuesday, November 6th, under rather peculiar and sorrowful circumstances, as all arrangements had been made for a brilliant event by Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCreight, when the death of a brother of the groom, Monday noon was announced, he having been injured in a railroad wreck at McKees Rocks, last Tuesday.

Many invitations were sent to friends and everything was in readiness for a very happy and elaborate wedding, but on account of the sad news, a simple ceremony was used, and the event was observed in all modesty and in accordance with the sad conditions surrounding.

It is said this is the third time this young couple have had dates set for their marriage, and each time death has come on the eve of the event, which was postponed in the first two instances. Both young people are highly respected, and while they have the sympathy of friends they also have congratulations and best wishes for long life and prosperity.

The wedding journey was dispensed with, and Mr. and Mrs. Bloom will be at home to friends in Monessen, after December first. The groom is employed in Greer Brothers large grocery store, is well known and highly respected, while the bride is one of Punxsutawney's most popular and honored young ladies.

WESTMORELAND COUNTY COURTS ON SPEED LIMIT

Reversed Decision of Suterville Magistrate and Borough Will Have to Pay Costs in the Case.

Superintendent Duer, of the Baltimore & Ohio's Pittsburg division was advised yesterday that the Westmoreland county court had reversed all decisions in cases of the borough of Suterville against the railroad company for exceeding the speed of 10 miles an hour through the borough, according to the borough's ordinance. This reversal of the decisions places the entire cost upon the borough for the half dozen or more cases, and also makes the borough remit the fines imposed upon the railroad. The suits were against engineers of fast trains, each engineman being fined and compelled to pay the costs The company appealed all the cases to the Westmoreland County court at Greensburg. The court's decision in the cases places Suter station on the map again. Had the decision not been given until a month later, or had it been against the railroad, it is probable that Suter would have been cut off with only one or two trains a day. The new time card will show the usual number of trains making regular stops at that station.

This decision is an important one, as it was a test of the right of the borough to dictate upon inter-state commerce. A similar case is now before the Allegheny county court for decision, being the Pennsylvania Railroad company's appeals from Wilkinsburg borough. Several arrests were made for exceeding the speed limit ordinance of the borough, and after the fines and costs were paid the cases were appealed.

TUESDAY'S election demonstrated the fact that the voters all over the country are no longer satisfied with "straight" politics. It takes more than flaunting the flag in the face of the voter and crying "straight ticket" to create the kind of government the people want. In this day and age its the man, not party name.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help But with that way, two treatments, must be combined One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does it work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Couldn't Lift Ten Pounds.

Doan's Kidney Pills Brought Strength and Health to the Sufferer, Making Him Feel Twenty-Five Years Younger.

Sick kidneys cause a weak, lame or aching back, and a weak back makes a weak man. Can't be well and strong until the kidneys are cured. Treat them with Doan's Kidney Pills. Here's the testimony of one man cured.

J. B. CORTON.

J. B. Corton, farmer and lumberman, of Deppe, N. C., says "I suffered for years with my back. It was so bad that I could not walk any distance nor even ride in easy buggy. I do not believe I could have raised ten pounds of weight from the ground, the pain was so severe. This was my condition when I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. They quickly relieved me and now I am never troubled as I was. My back is strong and I can walk or ride a long distance and feel just as strong as I did twenty-five years ago. I think so much of Doan's Kidney Pills that I have given a supply of the remedy to some of my neighbors and they have also found good results. If you can sift anything from this rambling note that will be of any service to you, or to any one suffering from kidney trouble, you are at liberty to do so."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Corton will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

WON AT BRIDGE WHIST

[Original.]

The steamer had but a couple of days more before reaching port when the sun, which we had not seen since our departure, broke through the clouds and bathed us all in a delicious warmth. Something else burst forth at the same time—the sunshine, for me, of a face. She came on deck for the first time, and her dignified father put her in a steamer chair, arranged her wraps and sat down beside her like a shepherd dog beside a lamb. Perhaps he saw me looking at her. At any rate, that's what I was doing, for I couldn't keep my eyes off her. Such refined dignity, such repose, such gentleness! It must have all come down from generations of gentility.

Why had the weather kept her below till the voyage was nearly finished? I must make the most of the brief period left to secure an acquaintance. Alas, the sun went down in clouds, and so did my hopes! She did not appear on deck again. I did not even see her leave the ship.

Winter came and the usual round of gayeties. An invitation—bridge whist at Mrs. Peabody's—came, among others, for me, and I resolved to accept.

On entering the card room the first face I set eyes on was the steamer girl. I was surprised and, though delighted at my luck in meeting her again, pained to see her in the company. Mrs. Peabody is ultra fashionable, and the people she entertains are very "smart"—that is, the women drink cocktails, smoke cigarettes and gamble. If you ask why I go with such people, I reply I am a man and can go anywhere without soiling the feathers of my angelic masculine wings, but had I a wife she should not go to Mrs. Peabody's.

I at once sought an introduction to the steamer girl, Miss Delaplain, and soon saw that she was out of her element. When a cocktail was handed her she started and declined it. I caught Mrs. Peabody frowning at her as she did so with an expression which, being interpreted, meant, "You don't get invited here again." Several young bloods had been chatting with Miss Delaplain when I was introduced to her, and they must have been putting on their up to date society manners for she looked ruffled and when I addressed her deferentially she figuratively nestled to me as one would cling to a lifeboat.

Miss Delaplain and I were at first partners. I saw at once that she knew very little about the game, and I soon suspected she didn't know she was playing for money. When we changed partners her new vis-a-vis soon made her aware of her temerity in playing a game she did not understand. At every misplay he would scowl at her and did not scruple to indicate that he was both.

At the evening's amusement I was about to take my departure when I met Miss Delaplain wearing a countenance that told of trouble.

"What shall I do?" she said. "I have been told that my loss at bridge whist is $105. I had no idea I was playing for money."

"And my gain is exactly the same amount. Though I knew that we were playing for stakes, I do not feel at liberty to accept my winnings."

"Why so?"

"You for one did not know that you were risking anything. The money you lost may have gone to me. You are in an unpleasant position. So am I. There is a way out for both. Let me turn in my winnings to cover your loss."

There was no trouble in persuading her to accept the terms, at least temporarily, for she had no dealings with her, and she told me she would need to break the matter to her father, who would be greatly shocked at hearing that she had been gambling. I bade her good night after asking permission to call and, going to the hostess, paid her loss.

Two days later upon opening my morning mail I found a note from Mrs. Peabody inclosing a note and a check for $108 from Mr. Delaplain in payment of his daughter's loss at bridge whist. Mrs. Peabody called my attention to the fact that the amount was $3 more than the loss. I supposed this to be an error until, referring to Mr. Delaplain's note, I saw in a postscript on the second page, "The $3 is to cover the supper."

What should I do with this amount? It did not belong to me and was intended as a snub for Mrs. Peabody. Should I return it to her, calling her attention to the snub? Such a crime would preclude the possibility of my attending any more entertainments at her house. I thought the matter over and concluded to accept the consequences. I inclosed a check for the surplus amount with Mr. Delaplain's note, underscoring the postscript with a blue pencil.

A week later I met Mrs. Peabody face to face on the steps of St. James' church. She gave me the dead cut.

My decision was more than one relating to Mrs. Peabody. It included the smart set of which Mrs. Peabody was a distinguished member. Something in the old fashioned demeanor of Miss Delaplain told me that if I adhered to the smart set I wouldn't be a fitting companion for her, and I knew that after her first experience she would not get lost among them again. My withdrawal proved to be no loss to me, for in time I became engaged to Miss Delaplain. I was glad to be privileged to return in gifts the amount of my gain at the bridge whist, which I always claimed I had won from her. Besides the money, I won a wife.

NATHAN WHITE HOWE.

For years I starved, then I bought a 50 cent bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and what that bottle benefitted me all the gold in Georgia could not buy. I kept on taking it and in two months I went back to my work as machinist. In three months I was as well and hearty as I ever was. I still use a little occasionally as I find it a fine blood purifier and a good tonic. May you live long and prosper. —C. N. Cornell, Reding, Ga., Aug 27, 1906. Kodol is sold here by R. W. Beck.

PRESENTED GOOD SHOW

Chauncey-Keiffer Stock Company Pleasing Large Crowds Nightly at the Local Theatre

A larger audience took advantage of the opportunity to witness for the first time in this city a dramitization of Marie Corelli's wonderful story of Norway and English society, entitled "Thelma", which received an elaborate scenic production and artistic interpretation by the Chauncey-Keiffer company at the local theatre last night.

There is no denying that the play is even more intersting than the book, for the reason that in the latter one can only read of the characters, while last night on the stage each type in the famous in the novel had a counterpart well acted. The special scenery of the company enhanced the production, the stage setting in the first act, showing Thelma's home in Norway, being especially effective, as well as the ball room scene in the third act.

Marie Corelli created a wonderful character in her Thelma, and Miss Grace Keiffer made her an even more wonderful reality Beautiful to a degree of positive factination, this clever actress gave such a subtle and charming interpretation of her part, with the light and shade of the whims of a coquette and the tender lovable passions of a good woman, that she was the big hit of the play Miss Keiffer's costumes were in keeping with her charming appearance and artistic acting, and no prettier or more becoming gowns have been seen on the stage this season in the local theatre.

Her support, too, was excellent. Walter M Ebel played the leading part of "Sir Philip Errington" in an excellent manner and dressed with all the fastidiousness of an Englishman of that nobility. John Brownelle in the dual parts of "Sigurd" the dwarf and "Sir Francis Lenox" showed himself to be an actor of marked ability, and James A Reynolds as the merry "George Lorrimer" was all that could be desired. John Vaughn played a most forcible "Oolaf Gouldmar," the old Viking, and Frank Clayton, the country bean, "Nels Johnson" was a delight. Wayne Darby made an excellent "Valdemar" a pilot. Viola Brownelle and Miss Vaughn both handled their respective parts in an admirable manner.

Tonight the great Western melo drama, "Deadwood Dick" will be presented. It is considered one of the best western playe on the road today. One should not fail to see the excellent specialties with this attraction.

STRUCK ROCK AT NINTH ST.

Employes of City up Against Hard Proposition in Constructing Ninth Street Sewer.

Monessen's street commissioners and employes as well as Borough Engineer Irwin, met quite a surprise Monday morning, when work was begun on the extension of the Ninth street sewers, by striking a bed of solid rock only a short distance below the surface. This sewer is being put in to drain cellars and toilet rooms of the Ninth street dwellings and will necessarily have to go down considerable depth.

Soft digging was expected, but as this rock is very hard, dynamite will be required the entire distance, requiring considerable time and making the work much more expensive than anticipated or than it would otherwise have been.
